Visa

Most travelers do not require a visa to visit Palau. Citizens of the United States, European Union, and many other countries may enter visa-free for up to 30-90 days depending on nationality. Travelers from countries not on the visa-exempt list may obtain a visa on arrival (30 days) at the airport. Proof of sufficient funds is required.

You are responsible for:

- Getting the correct visa for Palau
- Having documents to re-enter your home country
- Checking visa rules for any connecting flights

Where To Check:

- USA citizens: www.travel.state.gov
- Other countries: Contact your foreign affairs office or embassy

Palau Entry Form (Required)

Complete the Palau Entry Form at <https://palautravel.pw/> Within 72 hours (3 days) or less before your scheduled arrival.

Required Forms

You need two things before you can dive and a third if you plan to do scuba training:

1. GUEST INFORMATION SYSTEM (GIS)

What: Aggressor's online cruise application forms, including waiver and travel details

When: Complete 14 days before departure

How: You'll receive a link by email. If you didn't get it, contact reservations.

Include your flight arrival time or hotel name in the GIS.

2. DIVE CERTIFICATION CARD (C-CARD)

What: Your diving certification card

Bring: The physical card or digital proof

Note: If diving with Nitrox, bring your Nitrox certification card as well.

3. MEDICAL FORM (RSTC) (Only if doing scuba training)

What: Diving Medical History Form

When: Required only if you plan to take a scuba training or certification course during your trip.

How:

- Download the form now at <http://www.aggressor.com/RSTCMedical.pdf>
- Answer all questions honestly
- The form will tell you if your answers require a doctor's approval.
- If no doctor approval is needed, you can sign it yourself
- Print it and bring it to the yacht

ALREADY HAVE ONE? If you have a medical form signed by a doctor in the last 12 months, you can use that instead.

There are no doctors once the yacht leaves the dock. If you need a doctor's signature and don't have it, you cannot participate in any SCUBA training classes.

There are no doctors once the yacht leaves the dock. If you need a doctor's signature and don't have it, you cannot participate in any SCUBA training classes.

- An incomplete or Missing GIS will result in denied boarding and possible trip cancellation without refund.

- You cannot dive without a certification card.
- You cannot participate in SCUBA training courses without a medical form.

Travel & Health Insurance

Aggressor Adventures strongly recommends all guests purchase insurance to protect your investment and health.

SUGGESTED COVERAGE:

- Travel Insurance (Trip Cancellation and Interruption)
- Dive Insurance (Dive Accident and Medical)
- Equipment Insurance

CONSIDER ADDING:

- "Cancel For Any Reason" (CFAR) upgrade - extends coverage beyond traditional policies without the constraints of "covered situations".
- "Liveaboard Rider" upgrade - addresses liveaboard-specific issues such as missed dives due to illness, weather, or accidents to others, which impact your experience and more.

These policies provide financial security if unexpected events occur.

Get quotes: www.aggressor.com → Insurance for options.

Palau's tap water is not safe to drink — consume only bottled water ashore (distilled water available in most supermarkets). The yacht has a watermaker producing its own drinkable freshwater, plus a basic first aid kit including oxygen and an AED.

2. PREPARING FOR YOUR ADVENTURE (2-4 WEEKS BEFORE)

Recommended Packing

Travel light. Space on the liveaboard yacht is limited.

LUGGAGE: Use soft luggage, such as duffel bags (not hard suitcases), for easy storage in your room.

CLOTHING TO BRING:

- Lightweight, comfortable sportswear
- Swimsuits
- Light sweater or jacket for evenings
- Walking shoes for time ashore
- Sunglasses and hat

Dress code: Always casual and informal

ESSENTIALS:

- Sunscreen (reef-safe recommended)
- Sunglasses
- Hat
- Walking shoes

PACKING CHECKLIST: Use this QR code to grab a free Packing Guide. It's a simple checklist that makes sure you bring everything you need for your adventure. No more forgotten essentials!

Electronic Devices

Personal Electronics are welcome:

Cameras, phones, satellite phones, computers, tablets, and e-readers

The following devices are prohibited:

Underwater Scooters | Prohibited.

Electric Surfboards | Includes e-foils, jetboards, powered surfboards, and similar devices.

CHECK WITH AIRLINE: Some airlines have restrictions on lithium batteries in checked bags. Check your airline's rules before packing.

Required Dive Equipment

All divers are required to have the following equipment. You may either bring your own or rent on board.

- Mask
- Fins
- Snorkel
- Buoyancy Compensator (BCD)
- Regulator with an Alternate Air source and a visible pressure gauge
- Dive Computer
- Tank (provided)
- Weights (provided)
- Weight belt (provided)
- Wetsuit

Personal Equipment

Mark each piece of your personal gear with waterproof paint or tape. Equipment can look similar — make sure yours is clearly labeled.

Guests should also consider additional personal safety equipment such as:

- Dive Alert
- Nautilus Rescue Radio
- Whistle
- Mirror
- Surface Marker Buoy (SMB) with reel

WHY SMB & REEL ARE RECOMMENDED:

If you surface away from the main yacht, your surface marker helps the yacht staff to track your location for pickup. You are encouraged to practice deploying yours before the trip or on the initial check-out date.

Airline Travel & Checked Bags

WHAT TO CARRY ON THE PLANE: Pack these in your carry-on bag (NOT checked luggage):

- Passport and travel documents
- Dive certification card
- Medical form
- Money and credit cards
- Prescription medications
- One change of clothes (including swimsuit)
- Basic toiletries

Why? If your checked bag is delayed, having essentials in your carry-on means you can still dive on Day 1. Once the yacht leaves port, it cannot receive deliveries until it returns.

CHECK YOUR AIRLINE'S RULES: Different airlines have different limits for:

- Number of bags
- Weight limits
- Size restrictions
- Extra fees

BUSY SEASON RESTRICTIONS:

- Some airlines reduce luggage allowance during high season (December - April).
- You might only get one checked bag instead of two.

DIVE GEAR FEES:

- Many airlines charge extra fees for dive equipment.
- Check if your airline offers a "sports equipment" allowance.

Communication with Home

Before departure: Share your itinerary with family

Emergency contact: +1-706-664-0111 available 24/7

In port (embarkation day/departure day): Most cell phones will work if they have international roaming or data.

At sea: SeaFi Internet is available for purchase

Cell phones will work sporadically based on distance from towers.

Return day: Most cell phones will work if they have international roaming or data.

Tip: Send a "heading out for 6 days" message embarkation day evening so family knows you may be offline by choice.

Green the Fleet

Contribute to the Green the Fleet sustainability initiatives. Here are a few reminders to keep in mind as you get ready for your adventure:

- Use rechargeable batteries whenever possible. Plan to bring home used batteries so they can be properly disposed of.

Medication Storage:

The yacht and its staff cannot accept any medication brought on board for safekeeping, including those requiring refrigeration. Guests needing temperature-sensitive medication should travel with a cooling case or a small cooler with blue ice packets. The staff will gladly store and recharge blue ice packs but cannot accept responsibility for proper care or storage of medication. Medication must be kept in your room.

5. DIVING INFORMATION

Diving Operations

All dives are tender dives, conducted from a 35-foot custom-built, high-speed outboard skiff carrying up to 18 guests. A staff member accompanies each tender group and is in the water to offer assistance and keep the group together. After each dive the tender returns guests to the mother ship; each diver has their own tank rack, locker, and seating area. Palau is famous for drift diving — you enter the water in one location and surface in another, carried by the current, so an SMB with reel is a required safety essential. All diving is recreational and non-decompression.

21-24 (7-night) / 30-33 (10-night), weather permitting total. Up to Up to 5 (including night dives) per day. Night diving offered.

Typical Schedule

Day	Activity
Sunday	Arrive at NECO Marine dock 4:30 pm — board and check in, room orientation, set up dive gear, dinner; welcome and safety briefing 6 pm or later
Monday	12:50 am: late-Guam-flight guests transferred directly to the yacht. ~6 am: yacht departs for the first dive; initial dive briefing; check-out dive, then diving continues for the remainder of the day
Monday - Friday	Eat, Sleep & Dive — full diving days, up to 5 dives per day including night dives; fresh snacks between dives and 3 hot meals daily
Saturday	Morning dive; yacht returns to port by 2 pm — explore Koror, shop, or visit the museum; 5 pm Captain's cocktail party; 6 pm dinner at a local restaurant arranged by staff
Sunday	6 am continental breakfast; 8 am check-out — taxis arranged for airport or hotel transfers (not included)

Dive Supervision

- Diving is not just an activity; it's a passion for exploring the underwater world. That's why the dive program is built around empowering you and your buddy to take control of your diving experience.
- While in the water, you and your buddy are in charge.
- Every dive starts with a thorough briefing from the dive staff, covering site conditions, points of interest, and safety procedures.
- As certified divers, you and your buddy are responsible for planning and carrying out your dives while respecting your experience limits and those set by the briefing and your certification agency.
- Divers are not directly supervised - each buddy team manages their own dive.
- If you surface early, only your buddy team surfaces - other divers may continue their dive per the plan and briefing.

Equipment Storage

- Each guest will be assigned a designated seat on the dive deck and a personal locker or cubby to store items.
- There are rails and hangers for wetsuits.
- Freshwater showers are located on the back deck for post-dive comfort.
- Warm towels are provided after each dive.

Wetsuit Rentals

Limited — Reef hook is REQUIRED equipment for all divers, along with SMB (surface marker buoy) with reel and Dive Alert — bring your own or rent on board. Currents range from gentle to strong; most sites have strong currents. Tanks: 80 cu ft (12L) aluminum, standard K-valves (American yoke); limited convertible DIN valves available — bring your own adapter if you require DIN. Air fills included. Nitrox 32% available for certified divers (extra fee). Large-capacity 15L / 100 cu ft tanks rentable (convertible yoke/DIN valves). Rentals: mask, fins, snorkel, BCD, regulator, dive computer, dive light, SMB, large tanks, Nautilus Rescue Radio, wetsuits, Dive Alert. 3mm wetsuits offered but size availability may be limited — bringing your own is strongly encouraged (wetsuits/rash guards otherwise not available for rent per packing list). Dive Alerts and safety sausages available for use onboard at no charge. Nautilus

Rescue Radio rental recommended due to swift currents.

Itinerary Details

Palau is consistently ranked among the world's top three dive destinations. The Rock Islands — a UNESCO World Heritage Site — offer an extraordinary mix of drift diving, wall dives, caves, and WWII wrecks.

Blue Corner: one of the most famous dive sites on Earth — a plateau jutting into the open ocean drawing grey reef sharks, barracuda tornadoes, Napoleon wrasse, and dense schools of jacks riding powerful currents. Reef hooks are essential here.

German Channel: the premier site for manta ray encounters — the dredged channel funnels nutrient-rich water that attracts mantas on cleaning-station visits.

Blue Hole: enter a massive cavern from above, with four ocean-facing openings at depth illuminating the interior with shafts of blue light.

Jellyfish Lake (Ongeim'l Tketau): accessible only with the optional permit; a landlocked marine lake with millions of golden jellyfish that have lost their sting. Snorkeling ONLY — scuba is strictly prohibited. Open or closed at the discretion of Palau's Department of Conservation with no advance notice.

Diving Conditions

Water: 81-86°F / 27-30°C — Thermal skin or 3mm wetsuit

Visibility: Typically 20-40+ meters (65.6-131.2+ ft) depending on season and site

Season	Conditions
Peak Season (Nov-Apr)	Best overall conditions. Calm seas, minimal rainfall, peak visibility — often exceeding 100 ft (30 m). Water 81-84°F / 27-29°C. Excellent for all levels.
Shoulder (Apr-Jun)	Transitioning to wet season; conditions remain good, visibility slightly reduced but still excellent. Water 82-86°F / 28-30°C. April-May: prime season for bumphead parrotfish and snapper spawning events.
Wet Season (Jul-Oct)	More rain and occasional choppy surface conditions; underwater conditions remain good. Visibility may reduce to 15-20 m. Water 82-86°F / 28-30°C. Excellent macro.

Scuba Training

Enhance your education while on board an Aggressor yacht!

The courses available include:

- Advanced Open Water Diver (SSI or PADI)
- Enriched Air / Nitrox Courses (SSI or PADI)

Course fees are due once on board and after the instructor confirms your course. The training agency providing your course will depend on your instructor's affiliations.

A diver participating in scuba training will need to complete a medical history form. Please be sure to review the form prior to traveling and ensure you do not need a physician's signature.

Photo & Video

Photography: The yacht offers photography coaching while on board. The Palau Aggressor II has a camera table with low-pressure air hoses and a dedicated charging station for your camera and video equipment.

As a safety precaution, all lithium-ion batteries must be charged outside at the camera station and cannot be charged inside the yacht.

Video Service: The Video Professional can capture your diving adventure on board the Palau Aggressor II to share with family and friends.

The video of the week (including all guests and staff) is available for an additional fee. See www.aggressor.com for current pricing.
